Award for Andorra

HARROGATE-based professional services consultancy, The Andorra Group Limited has been awarded one of the most instantly recognised certifications in the industry, the BS EN ISO 9001: 2000 Certificate.

The fast growing, pioneering team at Andorra offer businesses improvement services via an innovative business methodology to organisations and individuals seeking to meet the challenges of the 21st century workplace.

With the award of the internationally recognised standard, the company is leading by its own example.

Managing Director Steve Bean said: “Working as we do with so many different companies, it quickly becomes apparent how important certifications like the ISO are in securing the credibility of an organisation and its methods.

“As an organisation, we strive to maintain internally the high quality standards that we offer our clients, and I am delighted this has been recognised by the award of the 9001: 2000 Certificate. I strongly believe this will serve to enhance the reputation of the Andorra Group in the business arena”

Established from scratch in 2001, the Andorra Group seeks to help individuals and organisations identify, understand and use the most appropriate means to realise measurable, quantifiable and qualifiable benefits and improvements in all endeavours.

The Group comprises a number of separate but complementary limited companies: Andorra Research; Andorra Consulting; Andorra Technology; Andorra Marketing; Andorra Training; Andorra Legal; Andorra Financial; Team Co-Activ.
